

Personal Ethics Statements

Professional Competence

1. Assure an appropriate level of professional knowledge sufficient to support consulting and teaching practice.
2. Perform professional duties with discretion in the use of confidential information.
3. Prepare concise and truthful communications after analysis of relevant information.

Outcome: Professional Competence Maintained

Personal Integrity

1. Avoid and/or clarify issues that lead to conflict of interest.
2. Recognize and communicate personal limitations (both in knowledge and experience) that prohibit successful professional performance.
3. Communicate clearly favorable and unfavorable information.

Outcome: Personal Integrity Maintained

Ethical Conflict

1. Discuss problems that lead to unethical behavior.
2. Define ethical issues involving confidential information.
3. Act ethically to others thus modeling proper behavior.

Outcome: Ethical Conflict Minimized